- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Evaluate and integrate USG support to steady state and crisis operations of partner agencies' C-WMD missions; develop effective plans and strategies to support them.
- Monitor and implement interagency WMD-CT plans; coordinate, integrate, and align competing requirements and priorities of stakeholders.
- Identify gaps and impediments that prevent effective WMD-CT planning and execution; develop recommendations and actions to resolve them.
- Develop and maintain effective partnerships with the Defense, Intelligence, Law Enforcement, and S&T Communities in support of their diverse, unique, (and often complex) mission-critical WMD-CT requirements across the spectrum from policy deliberations to tactical support in the field.
- Prepare and deliver comprehensive WMD-CT strategies, mission analysis, proposals, and reports of the highest quality to ODNI leadership, Senior Policy audiences, and other critical domestic and foreign C-WMD customers and partners.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Drive information sharing within the U.S. Government and with foreign partners; build, maintain, and aggressively leverage the diverse and collaborative networks within and across these organizations to support NCTC's Mission.
- Expert knowledge of IC organizations; IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.
- Superior ability to anticipate issues relevant to the IC and United States Government and recommend/implement needed actions.
- Superior leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups, build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals.
- Superior ability to design and implement integration strategies for IC initiatives and programs, including the superior ability to manage human, financial, and information resources.
- Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the superior ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
- Superior ability to manage strategic and tactical level topics, and develop innovative recommendations and solutions for improvement.
- Superior interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.
- Superior oral and written communication skills, including superior ability to draft and edit written reports of varying length and complexity, and to communicate effectively with audiences of varying seniority and expertise.

Desired Requirements

- Expert technical and operational skills, as well as extensive experience in the DoD C-WMD Enterprise across multiple disciplines (collection, analysis, planning, tactically focused operations and S&T capabilities, etc).
- Experience with multiple C-WMD related field deployments and outstanding, demonstrated rapport (as well as unique, enduring access) across critical elements of the DoD C-WMD Enterprise including Combatant Commands, SOCOM and its subordinate elements, OSD, and applicable combat support agencies.
